5051 - This is Squirrel, David G.I., Scott and Randy. They are new but are already one of the best fast bands in San Diego.

BATALLION OF SAINTS - By the time this is printed, their bass player should be out of jail, and their ep should be out.

Bad Compilation Tapes is an outfit based here which puts out high quality comp cassettes. Interested parties should write to: P.O. Box 16205/ San Diego CA 92116.

The next show scheduled at Fairmont is July 17. Three local bands will be playing with the Chiefs. The SD bands are the Violent Crime, the Nutrons. who have been around along time and are still really good, and my "favorite" band Anti-trust (formerly N.R.A.) In August D.O.A. is supposed to play Fairmont, and the Stains should appear as well.

To conclude this report, we would like to express our feelings on some bad labels that San Diego has been pegged down with for several years. For one, S.D. is not a town of "Slow Death", but rather one of a slow, but steady, life. With people's unity and cooperation, the S.D. scene can be as good as it used to be. Secondly, S.D. is not a town of violence. I don't know how this reputation got started, but in no way is it true. Sure San Diego has its share of assholes, but they don't plague the scene as some tend to think. Anyway, that's it for now. See you later and stay positive.

We have about 15 punks (hard core) in this hole. A lot of new faces, some are fitting in rather nicely, the others get scared and go back to hang gliders.

So where the hell did the 600 people that came to see the Alleycats come from?
